Club Slick

Burnside Ballroom
401 Greenhill Road, Tusmore
7.00pm-10.00pm

Club Slick is a monthly dance event for adults with disability that encourages and facilitates appropriate dance etiquette through a structured program with a professional choreographer.

Held monthly on Friday nights, at the Burnside Ballroom, Club Slick provides an opportunity for people with disability to socialise and develop skills, supporting increased participation in community activities.

With a wide range of music from retro rock n roll to the latest hits, participants have the chance to join in set dance routines as well as free dance with a partner.

Club slick offers a cash bar for monitored drink and snack sales, including alcoholic beverages.

There are a number of theme nights each year including Easter and Christmas.
